IT'S GOING to take a lot of food to replace that used by the late Charlie Thompson of Albany, who died in La Mesa after being stricken three weeks earlier while on a vacation there. Father McCullough of St. Ambrose said his parish is attempting to collect enough blood. It can be given locally and credited to Charlie Thompson. Might be a good idea to call Father McCullough at 325-2620 if you have given blood so he can keep track of the amount.

AS A MANWATCHER, and most women are, I decided at the PTA Council luncheon last Wednesday that Albany has a handsome crop of male school personnel. AHS Principal Carl Couch was speaker, tracing his impressions of Albany for the last four years. Before he came here, he had asked a friend what he knew about Albany. We were dismissed with: "That conservative town!" Later Couch learned Albany is inhabited by people of all political persuasions. He learned that the local PTAs are dedicated to doing what they can to make schools better. Former Principal Harry Price was an enthusiastic PTA supporter and vice versa. In his new post in Alaska, Harry discovered there is no PTA. When he inquired about it, he was advised to leave well enough alone.

Past Council President and School Board Member Anita Cronoff was installing officer, indicating in her introduction that her installation might be considered pornographic. As it turned out, it was literally "spicy." She gave bits of spices to each officer, relating duties of the office to the spice it adds to the council. Very clever.

Whales? In Albany?

The whale will advertise the dealer's "Whale of a Sale." See their ad elsewhere in this issue. —Larimer Photo.

STOP RUBELLA SUNDAY SCHEDULED OCT. 18

Sponsored by the U.S. Public Health Service, the State Health Department and the Alameda-Contra Costa County Medical Association, Stop Rubella Sunday, Oct. 18, is a mass vaccination day for reducing the number of susceptible children and thus reducing the chances of an epidemic of German Measles in 1971-72.

Certain schools in Alameda and Contra Costa counties will be the sites of mass clinics that day for children ages one through 11, similar to the K.O. Polio drive of 1962-63. In Albany, the vaccination site will be the gymnasium behind the high school from noon to 4 p.m. California has had little incidence of this disease in the past few years, which means that the number of susceptibles is increasing. If an epidemic starts, there will be tragic consequences in the form of body and brain damage to babies carried by mothers who contract the disease while pregnant.

While not directly protecting the mothers, this vaccination program will immunize the children who spread the disease and, hopefully, the expected epidemic can be averted.

Albany Health Department, Albany schools, Albany Police Department, Bay Area Health Association, and other organizations and individuals are cooperating in this effort to protect babies.

It's Fire Prevention Week

This week has been proclaimed "Fire Prevention Week" in Albany. Mayor H. F. Call has urged all citizens to observe good fire prevention practices and to reflect on the great losses from fire that California is now experiencing.

In the United States more than 1,000 persons lose their lives from fire each month. The appalling statistic is that one third of these are children. These statistics point up a tragedy of the great waste of human life and property through the ravages of carelessness with fire.

Observe simple rules of fire prevention and keep informed on the principles of fire safety at home and on the job throughout the year is the message of the 1970 Fire Prevention Week observance.

Brief City Council Session

It was a short session.

City Councilmen Monday night endorsed the Clean Water Bond measure, Proposition 1 on the November ballot, approved the hiring of Judith Frakes as police-woman-clerk in the Police Department, approved on first reading an amendment to the city code prohibiting living in trailers, voted to allot $100 for the 25th anniversary of the United Nations, and established yellow zones at 1275 Solano and 929 San Pablo.

After devoting 15 minutes to the business at hand, Councilmen spent another 20 minutes discussing with Jerry Taley the merits of the UN and the dust allegedly created through storage of Cable TV equipment near his home. The final speaker, aside from George Hein who moved for adjournment at 8:33 p.m., was Thomas Shockley of Oakland who suggested they send a letter with their $100 to the UN committee expressing their mixed feelings about the organization. Council meets next Tuesday because Monday is Columbus Day, a legal holiday.

More School Advisory Committee Reports Heard

At a special meeting Sept. 29, Albany Board of Education heard two more in the series of reports prepared last year by the Citizens Advisory Committee to the Albany Schools. Mrs. John Watson, chairman of the "Early Childhood Education" committee summarized the highlights of a long report stating that, "Children should be provided with environments that will entice them to learn; they should be encouraged to explore the world within and without themselves, and from an early age they should be given opportunities to make choices."

The Counseling and Guidance report was presented by Mrs. Glenn Wilson, chairman, who told the Board that many of the committee recommendations have already been implemented. She mentioned full-time counselors for Marin and Cornell schools had been hired; a change in special programs at the high school in the hiring of two resource teachers for students with learning problems, who are assisting regular classroom teachers; and finally, the extension of high-academic-potential program at Albany High school with implementation of a computer science program.

HOW ABOUT this for a fish story? Police Inspector Art Smith went to the landfill Saturday with a $20 pole and new $35 reel after hearing that Inspector Mel Boyd had caught a 21-pound bass there on Friday. Art lay his pole down with a big rock to secure it. He turned around and everything, including his camp stool, flipped into the Bay. Art went home to get another pole to attempt to retrieve his gear. A neighbor volunteered to go along. After about 40 minutes of casting, they saw a fish surfaced. They first thought it was a shark. The neighbor hooked the line (Art's) and pulled in what according to the Inspector was "the biggest bass I've ever seen." They got the fish up on the rocks and the neighbor grabbed for it. Instead of the fish, he grabbed the leader and the fish flipped back in the water and swam away. The tide was low and they discovered the pole stuck in some bent pipe. After all that fishing, Art came home with his pole and reel. And a fair fish story.

Announcing our new ones.

It's 1971 and Chrysler-Plymouth is coming through for you.

We're coming through.
We're coming through with variety: Five completely different car lines—76 different models. More kinds of new cars than anyone else in the business. We're coming through with value. Every Chrysler and Plymouth is built and engineered with extra care. To make sure you get a dollar's worth of automobile for every dollar you spend. We're coming through with brand-new options. Like a Stereo Cassette Tape System available with a microphone. You can record your own voice or record directly from the radio. It's 1971. And Chrysler-Plymouth's coming through for you.

Plymouth Satellite Sebring
It's the newest idea in two-doors. From front to back it's designed exclusively to be a two-door. With no compromises. So you get the styling and handling of a specialty car—all for the price of an intermediate car. And every one of our four-doors (Satellite, Satellite Custom, Satellite Brougham) was designed from the ground up to be a four-door. The result? People who take a back seat in our four-doors, don't take a back seat.

Chrysler Imperial
Chrysler Imperial comes through for all the living you do. It contains all the luxury you want, with personal touches. Like the exclusive optional rear seat heater. This allows your rear seat passengers to maintain their own level of comfort—cool or warm.

Plymouth Sport Fury
It's coming through for you with a lot more car. Everything about Sport Fury comes through big: the seats, interior room, body, engine and brakes. Plus, we've added Torsion-Quiet Ride—with a Sound Isolation System that separates road noises from you.

Chrysler New Yorker
The New Yorker lives up to its look of quiet authority. It's one of 15 different Chryslers coming through. Coming through with the size, room, comfort and power you want for all the living you do. With new options like an electric sun roof, to let in the light of the sun, or the moon.

Plymouth Duster
Our success car is coming through for you: Still small enough. Still big enough. Small enough to fit in about ¾ of a parking space. Big enough to seat five, comfortably. And still small enough to fit your budget. Duster. The big difference in small cars.

Plymouth Barracuda
The super-tough sporty car that comes through with torsion-bar suspension for better handling. Coming through for you with economy in Barracuda. Coming through for you with luxury in Gran Coupe. And coming through for you with great performance in 'Cuda.

Adult Paintings At Berkeley Bank

Oils and acrylics by members of Miss Carol Montgomery's art classes in Albany Adult school are on display at the Bank of California on Shattuck Ave. in Berkeley.

A champagne preview was held Monday night with Thomas E. Shaw, bank vice president, as host and Mrs. John M. Sardis representing the Adult school.

Miss Montgomery began her career with a scholarship to Cincinnati Art Academy. Later she received a scholarship to the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, attended other Eastern schools and since coming to California, attended the University of California. She has taught in the Bay Area 10 years and her workshops are attracting more students each term.

Virgil Moss, one of the students, recently won an award from the Society of Western Artists for a painting of buffalo on the open range. Raised in Montana, he specializes in western outdoor scenes.

F. W. Frederickson, credit officer of Bank of California in San Francisco, is known for his fine portraits. He received most of his training at Albany Adult school.

Another student, Miryam Shlomi, who came from Israel two years ago, has improved her English and understanding of Americans through the classes.

Obituaries

Constantine Brink

Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. today at St. Ambrose church for Constantine Christine Brink, 91, of 826 Masonic, who died Monday in Albany hospital.

A native of Ghent, Belgium, she had lived in the area 36 years. She was a member of St. Ambrose church and a charter member of Women's Benefit association in Louisville, Ky.

She was the wife of the late William H. Brink. Survivors include two daughters, Laura E. Stedman of Albany and Anna Conrad of Portland, Ore.; a sister, Amelia Presser of Indianapolis; grandchildren, Constantine (Connie) M. and Stephen A. Still of Albany, Emily H. Foster of San Lorenzo and Mary Jane Dietrich and Constance Muesle, both of Portland. A grandson, John H. Conrad, preceded her in death. Also surviving are 18 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

Rosary services were at Ellis-Olson mortuary last night. Another service will be at 9:30 this morning at the mortuary.

Elmer H. Lindquist

Funeral services were held for

Elmer H. Lindquist, 69, a member of a pioneer Albany family.

Mr. Lindquist, retired as senior sales representative of the Western Pacific Railroad, died in Oakland.

A native of Chicago, Ill., he moved to Albany in 1907 with his late parents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Lindquist, and five other young members of the family.

A sister, Mrs. Lillian Murison, now of El Cerrito, recalls that the family lived for a time in a tent while the family home was being built. Albany then had four or five houses and the father became one of the trustees named to incorporate the hamlet as a city, she noted.

Mr. Lindquist was also the brother of Albert and Ted Lindquist of Oakland; Lois Cook, Alberta Lindquist and Florence Curtiss, all of Lafayette; Wayne Lindquist of Fremont, and Pauline Havens of Palm Desert, Calif.

Services were held Oct. 5 in the Drawing Room Chapel of Ellis-Olson mortuary, Albany. They were conducted by the Foothill Lodge 564, F&AM.

Charlie Thompson, Jr.

Rosary services and Requiem Mass were conducted last Thursday and Friday for Charlie Thompson, Jr., 43, of 1081 Neilson, at St. Ambrose church.

Mr. Thompson, who had lived in the area 28 years and was very popular locally, died Sept. 27 in La Mesa, where he became ill while on a family vacation. He had been hospitalized three weeks and had used more than 30 pints of blood.

According to a spokesman for St. Ambrose parish, Mr. Thompson was friendly, a good father and a good friend. His friends at St. Ambrose have been collecting and are continuing to collect blood for him. He was a member of St. Ambrose, active in CYO and the adult Liniment League of the church and was employed at Naval Air Station.

Survivors include his wife, Arline D. Thompson; son, Santel, eighth grader at School of Madeline in Berkeley; mother, Mrs.

Lizzie Thompson of Oakland, and brothers and sisters, Dorthel, Lewis and Robert Thompson, Renell McMullen, Doris Taylor, Eddie Mae Turner, Adean Williams, all of Oakland, and Lenora Wolfe of San Francisco.

Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery. Ellis-Olson mortuary was in charge of local arrangements.

Dagmar Dreher

Funeral services for Mrs. Dagmar M. Dreher, 57, 42 Highgate Rd., Kensington, were held at 10 a.m. Sept. 28, at Ellis-Olson mortuary chapel.

The Rev. Monroe Teacher of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church,

Berkeley, officiated. Burial followed in Rolling Hills Memorial Park, Richmond.

Mrs. Dreher died in an Oakland hospital.

Born in Boston, Mass., she was a long-time resident.

Survivors include her husband, J. Leonard Dreher, Kensington, a son, Gerald Dreher, Boston, a daughter, Pamela Dreher, North Hollywood.

Charles H. Lewis

Memorial services for Charles H. Lewis, 52, 936 Stannage Ave., Albany, were held at Ellis-Olson mortuary, under auspices of the American Legion post 292, Albany. He was a member of the American Legion post 292, the Loyal Order of Moose, Albany, the International Association of Machinists, Oakland, and was a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Nancy Lovesey, Albany, and Mrs. Jeannie Canady, Santa Rosa; a sister, Mrs. Grace Telles, Albany, and one grandchild.

Born in Louisiana, he was a local resident for 50 years and worked as a machinist in Hay-

Senior-Oliveira Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Oliveira
(Marilyn Senior)

The woodsy setting of John Hinkle Park amphitheatre was selected by Marilyn Lorraine Senior for her early afternoon marriage to Rick Oliveira, son of the Ralph Oliveiras of Castro Valley.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Senior of Talbot Avenue was given in marriage by her parents. The Rev. O. R. Janke of Grace Lutheran church, El Cerrito, officiated at the double ring ceremony beneath a large metal arch, trimmed with fresh flowers and flanked with baskets of orange and white carnations. Organ music was pre-taped by the Grace Lutheran organist. Marilyn and Rick wrote their own marriage vows.

The bride's gown was empire style white organza with high neckline, bodice and the tops of sleeves covered with Venice lace as were the cuffs of her old-fashioned full sleeves. A flat bow secured her full length veil of organza. Marilyn carried a cascade of carnations, orchids and stephanotis and wore the pearls her father gave her mother on their first Christmas. The six-pence in her shoe and her long lace slip had been brought from England by her late paternal grandmother.

Lynda Oliver of Albany was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Carol Bickle of Albany. Flower girls were Stacey Linderman of Twain Hart, niece of the bridegroom, and Denise Senior of Pinole, niece of the bride. All attendants wore mandarin orange organza A-line formal with full sleeves of sheer organza and Venice lace trim. They carried orange and white carnations in nosegays for bridal attendants and baskets for the little girls.

William Conde of Mareno, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Dale Wilson, Nick Wittmayer, Bill Hanlon, all of Castro Valley, and Tom Ozanich of Pinole.

A reception followed in the parish hall of Grace Lutheran church. About 250 guests were greeted by Mrs. Senior wearing a sea mist green lace dress with matching silk linen coat, and Mrs. Oliveira, who selected a shell pink dress of whipped cream print with matching coat. Both had white orchid corsages.

Before a second reception at the bride's home for relatives and out-of-town guests, Rick and Marilyn went to Herrick hospital, where they delivered her orchid, a large piece of wedding cake and the almond favor to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Idena Houck, who broke her hip in the week before the wedding.

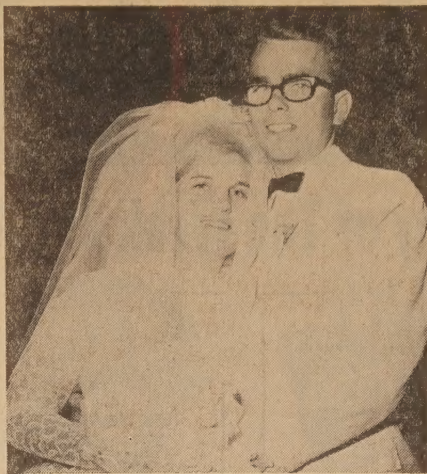

Following a wedding trip to Long Barn, the couple is at home in Hayward.

The bride, a junior at Cal State, Hayward, is a chemical analyst at Cutter Laboratory. Her husband is a senior at Cal State and works as a sound technician for Swanson Sound in Oakland.

Among out-of-town guests were relatives of the bride: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ketrenos and the Junior Ketrenoses, Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schreyvogel, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Price, Stockton; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Scott, Antioch; Mr. and Mrs. Rod Speetzen, Walnut Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bryant and Mr. and Mrs. Larry McCaffey and son, all of Pleasanton, and Mr. and Mrs. Wellman Reumann, Concord.

The bridegroom's relative included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hewitt, Los Angeles; Mrs. Evelyn DeWalt, Sunland; Mr. and Mrs. John Linderman and family, Twain Hart, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peterson, San Jose.

Illig-Haller Wedding

(Ingrid A. Illig)

Recent rites at St. James Lutheran church in Richmond united in marriage Ingrid Anita Illig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Wyngarden of San Ramon, and Charles Vincent Haller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haller of Portland Avenue, Albany.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bouffant gown of acetate and nylon lace with long sleeves, basque style bodice and chapel train. Her three-tier bouffant veil was studded with pearls and was attached to a pearl-trimmed petal cap. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Christine Sorenson of Moraga was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Yvette Gruber of Concord.

Lloyd Hawkinson of Albany was best man. Ushers were Paul Haller, brother of the bridegroom, and David Adams of Richmond.

Miss Pamela Haller, sister of the groom, was organist for the wedding, which was attended by 150 guests who later moved to the church parlors for the reception.

The bride's mother wore blue chiffon with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother selected yellow chiffon with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Following a wedding trip to Southern California, the couple is at home in Albany.

The bride, a graduate of San Ramon High school, is attending beauty college. Her husband is

Free Booklets
On Fly Control

Albany Health Department has placed free booklets on fly control at the schools and the Albany Library.

Flies are going to get more persistent as winter approaches since they must find shelter now or die, stated Harold Van Coops, deputy health officer. They spend the winter as adults in protected spots or as pupae in the soil. Pupae are inconspicuous bean-shaped cocoons from which the adult flies will emerge when conditions are right.

Flies are incriminated in the spread of most of our so-called filth diseases. Their filthy habits make them carriers of intestinal diseases such as Salmonella and typhoid fever, infections of wounds, and investigations of food and even wounds by the maggots (larvae of flies) themselves.

Hot weather is most productive of flies, stated Van Coops. Any food left sticking to the bottoms of garbage cans when cans are emptied will allow a hatch of fly eggs. Drain and wrap all garbage, or better yet, put it in plastic can-liners.
